Flat 4, Francis House, Leasehold | SW11

Situated within the iconic former Victorian department store Francis & Sons, is this superb two bedroom flat. Francis House is a boutique development of eleven Victorian apartments that have been fully restored and sensitively remodelled to create modern homes to stand the test of time.

Finished to an extremely high spec, the apartments have been beautifully refurbished. Graceful Victorian features have been enhanced or replicated and include authentic wooden sash windows, stately architraves and coving while the characteristic high ceilings add to the feeling of light and space. The choice of appliances, accessories and fittings complement the Victorian charm and underpin core values of quality, security and efficiency – themes that run deep at Francis House.

- Two double bedrooms
- Bathroom
- Kitchen/ reception room

Francis House is within walking distance of parks and open spaces, the banks of the Thames, various highly rated independent schools and all manner of shops, cafés, pubs, bars and restaurants. With Clapham Junction just a short walk away, there is the added convenience of exceptionally good transport links throughout the capital.
